“USELESS FAITH”

[The following article is written by brother Paul Vaughn, who preaches for the Church of Christ in Hawesville, KY. It appeared in the January 30, 2012 issue of the Beacon, a publication of the Bellview Church of Christ.]

Faith is used 243 times in the New Testament and without it one cannot please God. Every Christian must live a life trusting in God. “The just shall live by faith” (Rom. 1:17). However, have you ever considered that there is an useless faith? The Scriptures teach that some have a faith that God will not accept.

God will not accept a dead faith. James defines dead faith as one without righteous works for God. It is written, “Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead” (Jam. 2:17). It would not do any good to say you believe in God and not do His will. Jesus said:

Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven (Mat. 7:21).

Dead faith is all words and no actions. Dead faith never teaches the Gospel. Dead faith is absent of good deeds toward the poor or sick. Dead faith is preoccupied with popularity with man and void of the goal to please God. Those who are dead in faith have an unfocused life, they never see the need to put Christianity into action.

God will not accept an erring faith. Paul spoke of this type of faith when he wrote:

O Timothy, keep that which is committed to thy trust, avoiding profane and vain babblings, and oppositions of science falsely so called: Which some professing have erred concerning the faith. Grace be with thee. Amen (1 Tim. 6:20-21).

Sadly, today some have an erring faith because they put their trust in man and not God.

Every follower of Christ should seek to keep the faith by trusting in God daily. Just before his death, Paul spoke of his unfailing faith in God. “I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith” (2 Tim. 4:7). His faith was not dead, but active. Paul never erred in the faith because he looked to the Lord and not to himself. Let us all follow the example of Paul unless we have a useless faith.
