“Some Thoughts on the Greatest Prophet of Them All: the Prophet of Prophets”

[The following article is written by brother Johnny Oxendine and appeared in the April 14, 2008 issue of the Beacon, a publication of the Bellview Church of Christ.]

As John opens his account of the life of Christ, he tells of the work of John the Baptist. On one occasion, priests and Levites from Jerusalem went to John and inquired as to whether or not he was the Christ (John 1:19-23). When John denied being the long-awaited Messiah, the priests and Levites then asked if he was Elijah, to which John answered: “I am not.” They then asked: “Are you the Prophet?” They wanted to know if John was “the Prophet” Moses had promised centuries before—the answer was “No.”

The reason for this question was because God would raise up a Prophet “from your midst, from your brethren” (Deu. 18:15—NKJV). Therefore, there would be no reason for Israel to turn to heathen soothsayers. God was going to raise up a body of prophets to declare His words, and later He would raise up one great Prophet who alone could compare to Moses.

What did Moses say about Christ? God told Moses:

I will raise up for them a Prophet like you from among their brethren, and will put My words in His mouth, and He shall speak to them all that I command Him. And it shall be that whoever will not hear My words, which He speaks in My name, I will require it of him (Deu. 18:18-19).

This passage was speaking of Christ, for Peter quoted it in Acts 3:22-23 and applied it to Him. Stephen quoted this same passage in the sermon that cost him his life (Acts 7:37).

Additionally, it was in the region of the Sea of Galilee that Jesus fed the 5,000 with “five barley loaves and two small fish” (John 6:1-14). When the people had been fed and there was still bread to spare, they said: “This is truly the Prophet who is to come into the world” (John 6:14). Jesus is God’s final spokesman. The Hebrews writer reminds us of how God, who at various times and in various ways spoke in time past to the fathers by the prophets, has in these last days spoken to us by His Son (Heb. 1:1-2).

The Hebrews writer mentions the consequences of neglecting the message of Christ.

Therefore we must give the more earnest heed to the things we have heard, lest we drift away. For if the word spoken through angels proved steadfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just reward, how shall we escape if we neglect so great a salvation, which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed to us by those who heard Him, God also bearing witness both with signs and wonders, with various miracles, and gifts of the Holy Spirit, according to His own will? (Heb. 2:1-4).

Have you listened to the words of Christ, God’s final spokesman? If you reject the message of Christ (the Gospel), you will have rejected your only means of eternal salvation! Take advantage of this opportunity while it is still available.

The Gospel Plan of Salvation

- HEAR the word of God; the Bible (Romans 10:17)
- BELIEVE the word of God and that Jesus is Lord (John 8:24; Hebrews 11:6)
- REPENT of sin (Acts 17:30)
- CONFESS that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God (Matthew 10:32-33)
- BE BAPTIZED in order to receive remission of sins (Acts 2:38); in order to have past sins washed away (Acts 22:16); in order to get into the body of Christ, the church (Romans 6:3-4; Acts 2:47); in order to be saved (Mark 16:15-16; 1 Peter 3:21)
- LIVE FAITHFULLY in accordance with God’s word (1 John 1:6-9; Revelation 2:10)
