“REFLECTIONS OF THE POWER OF THE WORD”

[The following article was written by Jess Whitlock, and appeared in the October 17, 2011 Beacon, a publication by the Bellview Church of Christ in Pensacola, FL]

One sister related this interesting episode about the late brother J. W. Chism. Many years ago, Henry Stetson, related to the Texas hat maker of that name, came into Oklahoma preaching for the Baptists, enjoying great crowds where ever he preached. Some of our brethren in Ardmore approached Mr. Stetson about having a public discussion. They proposed that he meet with brother J. W. Chism. Mr. Stetson agreed to discuss the Bible plan of salvation in debate.

The first debate lasted almost a week, and centered on passages like Mark 16:15-16; Acts 2:38; 22:16; Galatians 3:26-27; 1 Peter 3:21; etc. As the debate drew to a close, Mr. Stetson challenged brother Chism to meet for another debate in another community. Brother Chism picked up the gauntlet. On the third or fourth day of that second debate, brother Chism had just finished his second affirmative argument. Mr. Stetson walked slowly to the podium. Everybody assumed he would enter his negative speech. However, Mr. Stetson turned and spoke directly to brother Chism. He said that if brother Chism would take his good confession that he was ready to go into the water, and be baptized for the remission of sins (Acts 2:38).

Welcome Visitors

We're glad you are with us today. Feel free to ask us any questions you may have. We look forward to getting to know you better.

Obviously, the debate closed with that act of obedience (Rom. 6:1-4, 16-18). Brother Stetson then held a meeting in that very community that resulted with somewhere between 40 and 50 people being baptized into Christ, and added to the Lord's church (Acts 2:41-47). Brother Stetson continued as a faithful Gospel preacher for years to follow. Let us never underestimate the power of God's Word. Remember, when a man who is honestly mistaken hears the truth, he will either quit being mistaken, or he will quit being honest.
